EGIT – Economic Geography and International Trade Research Meeting in Munich, March 25-26, 2011

Call for Papers

Purpose:

Researchers, who are specialized in regional/urban economics and international trade, come together in order to share their ideas and comment on other's research papers. The meeting encourages interaction and discussion between the researchers, so that new ideas and joint projects can be initiated. Any paper, discussing the topics of economic geography or international trade, is welcome. This includes topics in urban economics, regional economics, new economic geography, international trade, and the economics of multinationals firms.

Participants:

This meeting aims at young researchers and Ph.D. students in the field of economic geography and international trade. Senior scholars are invited to participate and take actively part in the discussions and give guidance to younger scholars.

Keynote speaker:

Dr. Daniel Sturm Lecturer, London School of Economics

Organizers:

Prof. Gabriel Felbermayr, PhD, Ifo Institute, University of Munich
Prof. Dr. Volker Nitsch, Darmstadt University of Technology
Prof. Dr. Jens Südekum, University of Duisburg-Essen
