CALL FOR PAPERS

CESifo Workshop on

CHINA AND THE GLOBAL ECONOMY POST CRISIS

Organisers: Peter Egger and John Whalley

to be held on 18-19 July 2011
on the island of San Servolo in the Bay of Venice, Italy

Workshop description

The workshops focus will be China's interaction with the Global Economy; both how China affects overall global economic performance and how the global economy affects China's development. The coverage will be broad covering such topics as trade, both inward FDI flows into China and outward FDI flows from China, exchange rate policy, reserve management in China, global and Chinese climate policy (including low carbon), the global economy influences on Chinese inequality, China's interactions with international organizations (including G20, WTO and IMF). The overarching issues involve the impacts of China's high growth globally, the adjustment consequences outside of China, the constraints on future high growth from international factors, and how Chinese objectives and policies intertwine with the global policy regime.

Contact

For submissions, please visit www.cesifo.org.

Go to the Conferences page, click on the conference submenu and then on the name of the conference; follow then the "Submit Paper" link below the conference description. Only online submissions will be accepted. Should you have any (technical) difficulties with the online submission procedure, please contact saavedra@cesifo.de for assistance.

The deadline for submissions is March 30, 2011. Authors of papers that are accepted for presentation at the workshop will be notified by the end of April.

A total of 16 papers will be presented and a selection will appear as published papers in the journal CESifo Economic Studies (see below for more information about the journal).

It is understood that all submissions to the conference imply submission to the publication outlet. The papers presented at the workshop can be revised after the workshop to include comments. All papers presented are eligible for submission to the CESifo Working Paper Series.

Information about the journal CESifo Economic Studies:

With the increasing specialisation in the profession, there is an urgent need for building bridges between the different areas in economics. The economic research papers published in academic journals are becoming increasingly less accessible to those not working in the same field. CESifo Economic Studies, published by Oxford University Press on behalf of CESifo, aims to bridge the gap between specialised research in economics and the interest of non-specialists. The journal combines theory and empirical research with a strong emphasis on policy issues.

CESifo Economic Studies publishes contributed papers by top level academic economists which are written in a style accessible to all economists regardless of their specialization. The primary focus of the journal is on policy problems, but it also publishes high quality, non-technical articles which are of general interest to economists.

The journal is circulated among a wide audience including government, business, and policy-makers as well as academics and students. All articles appearing in the journal are thoroughly refereed. For more information see: <http://cesifo.oxfordjournals.org/>

CESifo will provide accommodation, and will reimburse economy travel costs, for all participants with accepted papers. Other CESifo Research Network members are invited to participate, but are expected to provide their own funding for travel and accommodation.
