*) Every member determines its own membership fee at or above the minimum fee of €400, as determined by a decision of the Membership Assembly in 2001. The voluntary portion of the membership fee is reserved for tasks that are determined by the Administrative Council and reported at the annual Membership Assembly. The internal revenue authority (Finanzamt München) has recognised the Ifo Institute as a non-profit-making institution, i.e. obligatory and voluntary membership fees can be treated as tax-deductible donations.
