

Invitation to a Press Conference on 24 February
2010

For the presentation of the EEAG Report on economic developments in Europe

“Exiting the Crisis”

The European Economic Advisory Group (EEAG) @ CESifo is an independent, international advisory group of eight leading economists from seven European countries. Its ninth annual report on the economic situation in Europe will be presented in the major European capitals, hence also in Berlin. In addition to an economic forecast for the coming twelve months, the report includes analyses on various aspects of the financial crisis.

At the press conference in Berlin, EEAG experts will present the contents of the report, with special emphasis on the key issues affecting Germany.

Speakers:

Prof. John Hassler

Professor of Economics at the Institute for International Economic Studies,
Stockholm University

Prof. Jan-Egbert Sturm

Professor of Applied Macroeconomics and Director of the KOF Swiss Economic Institute,
ETH Zurich

Members of the EEAG advisory group:

Gilles Saint-Paul (University of Toulouse, group head), Giancarlo Corsetti (European University Institute Florence), Michael P. Devereux (University of Oxford), Luigi Guiso (European University Institute Florence), John Hassler (Stockholm University), Hans-Werner Sinn (Ifo Institute for Economic Research and University of Munich), Jan-Egbert Sturm (ETH Zurich - Swiss Institute of Technology, KOF - Swiss Economic Institute) and Xavier Vives (IESE Business School).

Conference venue:

Conference center of the Bundespressekonferenz
Schiffbauerdamm 40/Ecke Reinhardstrasse 55
10117 Berlin

Date:

24 February 2010, 13:00 to 14:00 hrs

Information on the EEAG and its members as well as past years' reports are available at:
www.cesifo-group.de/portal/page/portal/ifoHome/B-politik/70eeagreport